

Northeastern Illinois University - Objectifying (dis)Ability Conference October 22, 2014 Session Evaluation Results

Tobin & Toffolo: "Universal Design for Learning: A Bold Pedagogical Approach"

Attendance: 48

Respondents: 20

1. This session's information will be useful to me in my job.
2. The description matched what I experienced in the session.
3. The facilitators demonstrated good presentation skills.
4. Over all, this was a good session.

5. In a few words, share your over-all impression of this session.

- Amazing!
- Good to reinforce ideas I've heard before, and hear new ideas.
- Great presentation!
- Great presentation. I am looking forward to learning more about UDL.
- I currently have a professor utilizing this approach. She has a high level of organization, as well—making my job as a student easier.
- I have discovered new directions for my speech classes—awesome!
- I very much enjoyed it. I especially enjoyed the specific examples from Cris [Toffolo].
- Informative, useful, positive. I am grateful this topic is being discussed in a non-confrontational way.
- Preaching to the choir, in my case! A validating presentation.
- Really engaging and well done! Good information shared in a funny and engaging way!
- Strategies were excellent!
- Thank you, Tom and Cris.
- The majority of material covered was very strong.
- This was very helpful—a lot of strategies to apply to my teaching.
- Very clear and simple training on how to enhance learning for everyone. Powerful and fun.
- Very informative and educational. I would like to see practices like these become more commonplace at NEIU.
- Very informative. Should make this info accessible to all faculty on campus.
- Well prepared, constructive, interactive, useful, and interesting.