

University of West Georgia – National Distance Learning Week Series
November 10, 2015 Session Evaluation Results

Tobin: “Copyright That You Can Actually Understand and Apply”

Attendance: 29

Respondents: 27

- 1. This session’s information will be useful to me in my job.
- 2. The description matched what I experienced in the session.
- 3. The facilitators demonstrated good presentation skills.
- 4. Over all, this was a good session.

5. In a few words, share your over-all impression of this session.

- Excellent presentation that I learned a great deal about copyrights.
- Excellent!
- Good blend of humor and information. Very useful and helpful!! It will be invaluable in planning my future courses.
- Great simplification of a very complicated issue.
- Great!
- If it’s not a copy, don’t sweat it! Hyperlink it!
- Linking is better than uploading articles. Creative Commons!
- Loved studying & modeling copyright.
- The class was informative about how to use copyrighted material.
- The distinction of making a copy was very helpful. I learned more about fair-use than I was aware of.
- There are many online resources (not for profit, for public good) the duplicate or complement Thomas’s materials. It would be an improvement to share those and his inspirations, since he mentioned not reinventing the wheel.
- Very good—thanks for having Thomas here.
- Very informative & entertaining.
- Very useful.
- Worthwhile, but I would have like have seen more “real” examples of what these strategies look like.