

Seminole State College—March 18, 2016
 Three Fridays College Speaker Series

Tobin, “Increase Student Satisfaction and Retention with Universal Design for Learning.”
 Participant Evaluation Results

Attendance: 26

Respondents: 22

1. This session’s information will be useful to me in my job (and/or my personal life).
2. The description matched what I experienced in the session.
3. The facilitator demonstrated good presentation skills.
4. Over all, this was a good session.

Open-ended feedback:

- Entertaining way of presenting good information.
- Good examples.
- Great information. Applicable in a cross-disciplinary way.
- Great material to incorporate within the class.
- Great session.
- Great, would like to see more experiences on how colleges got to be UDL model sites, and other colleges got there.
- I enjoyed and appreciated learning clear strategies that I can employ in my work.
- Informative, easy to understand, good examples, useful across the curriculum, tech savvy.
- Most of concepts of Universal Design I already use in my classes; this workshop supports and cements my knowledge—so essential for all teachers.
- Thank you! Excellent.
- Thank you, Tom! You helped to reinforce what our instructional designers have been quietly saying. Thank you for helping to open eyes and ears.
- Thank you.
- This session provided me with several concepts & strategies to consider. I am unsure how they apply to my learning objectives. However, I intend to explore possibilities.
- Very entertaining and interactive.
- Very good presentation. I already employ some of these techniques in my online statistics course, using a note packet, videos, technology, screen captures, still pics, and more open due dates.
- Very valuable information. Good presenter.
- Worthwhile & specific.