

Session Evaluation

Session Type and Event: Spotlight Panel

Session Title: Voices for accessibility in distance learning

Presenter(s): Thomas Tobin, Sarah Schroeder, Scott Ready, Andrew Lessman, Angela Jackson

Total evaluations returned: 9

RATINGS: 5 = VERY GOOD 4 = GOOD 3 = AVERAGE 2 = FAIR 1 = POOR

	Average Score
Presenter(s)' Knowledge	4.8
Usefulness of information	4.7
Overall session rating	4.8
Guidebook app star rating	4.7 (9 votes)

Comments:

- Good breadth of panelists.
- Very informative! Thank you! Appreciate the “time keep Tobin.”
- Left me wanting more discussion. Thank you!
- Loved it! Bring Thomas Tobin back EVERY YEAR! Sarah was awesome and so was Angela.
- Should include voices of students who have navigated disability services. Their recommendation of what was helpful and what was horrible.
- Loved this! Practical, important, intellectually engaging, hospitable.
- Extremely helpful overview of potential pathways to create more discussion on accessibility.
- Excellent overview of accessibility laws and practical applications in the field. Cohesive presentation, and Tom was an excellent facilitator.