Dear Tom,

Thank you so much for your investment of time and thoughtful preparation for our experience of UDL under your guidance. It was such a pleasure getting to know you and reaping the benefits of your considerable knowledge of UDL and insights into its application, both within the context of Guilford College's new Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP), Speak Up: Unifying Presentation for an Inclusive, Connected World, and as it applies more broadly to current strategic institutional priorities.

Thank you as well for sharing your thoughts with us on the experience of Guilford in delivering the three workshops targeting Hege Academic Commons faculty and educational support professionals, students, and faculty at large; and in your meeting with the Senior Leadership Team. The video recordings of the workshops are wonderful to have, and we thank you for going the extra mile to make these available to us for future reference. The student session, I think, will be particularly enlightening to us all.

We will be on the lookout for your forthcoming book, Reframing Universal Design for Learning in Higher Education, and will keep it for reference in our Teaching, Learning, and Research Collaboratory. Very much hoping that we will stay in touch, and perhaps cross paths again. Please know that your essential work with us got us off to a great start by laying the necessary UDL foundation for advancing the QEP!

Kindest regards,
