

- 1. This workshop’s information will be useful to me in my job.
- 2. The description matched what I experienced in the workshop.
- 3. The facilitator demonstrated good presentation skills.
- 4. Over all, this was a good workshop.

5. In a few words, share your over-all impression of this workshop.

- Although we are not particularly learning to become teachers in this program, the workshop was useful in the prospect of teaching something in the future.
- Greetings for the day!! Hi, I am XXXX XXXXXXXXX. I am highly impressed by the way you were giving the presentation, and I appreciate your skills. I felt motivated and enthusiastic. And, yes, you are the true example that ge doesn’t matter and it’s all about spirit within you. That needs to be changed for most professors to reach the level of their audience, especially if you have a young audience. You are fabulous! Cheers to your energy!!! 😊 😊
- I already know what he demonstrated here. Thank you to all.
- I got a lot of new information.
- I like the “10 and 2” theory.
- I like your way of teaching.
- I liked the idea of self-quizzes. I liked the interactions (with learners) of the PPTs.
- I really enjoyed the workshop. The facilitator managed to keep my attention throughout the workshop. I also managed to take a few tips for future endeavors.
- I think it can help instructors to enrich their ways during teaching, but for me I see or I always like to say “eyes are the scopes of talking.”
- I will say that the workshop was very good, and it has also given me a clear understanding of online study and also how to improve on my skills as a student.
- It is good, sharing new methods and ideas about online learning.
- It was a really good and recommendable ways of different learning skills.
- It was awesome. The professor was very explicit and eloquent, friendly, and very informative. The best workshop I have had so far.
- It was really practical & helpful for my everyday online teaching practice.
- Really good presentation and helpful information . . and a lot of good interaction. Thank you!
- Thank you very much for the workshop. It has been the most instructive/informative/motivational/encouraging course during my studies in Pécs University. Thank you for coming. Hope we will be able to meet your workshop one more time.

- The style of speaking of the professor: humor, relaxed, and encouraging.
- There are many informative skills that we benefit from in this lecture. Thank you very much. 😊
- Very informative, useful, and easy to relate.
- What I've liked most is the way of the presentation. Thank you for your visit.
- You focus on teaching, but we need more information about the workplace.
- You have a brilliant way of presenting. You encourage us to join you, according your way of presenting.
- You were really kind and full of examples—and only a little pressure.