2	Phenomenal presenter and excellent content.
3	It was a fantastic learning experience.
4	I learned something new. I was able to take away valuable information that I can put to use in the workplace.
6	Good sense of humor and interactivity.
7	I got something very specific and applicable from each session. The activities apply directly to professional activities.
9	I learned a lot & it was as interesting as it could be.
11	Clear and informative without too much jargon. Used a practical approach.
12	Good speaker, interesting point of view, interactive, responsive to the audience, informative.
13	Everything was great, but I thought it could have been an hour each time. It was very engaging.
14	1. Very informative information that we can apply at our University. 2. The information was delivered in an easy and effective way to understand manner. 3. Very interactive and engaging.
15	It was an excellent introduction, but was less detailed with some aspects (e.g. legal) than I expected.
16	Engaging and informative faciliator with a very clear plan for the course, great use of stories and engagement around applying the lessons.
17	Style of teaching copyright was very effective. Good examples.
18	I loved the content and the presenter but was sorry there were not more concrete answers. I did feel that I got strong answers to the things most troubling to me. In copyright conversations I'm always left with the feeling that the other shoe has not fallen.that there is something else still out there that will come get me just as I get comfortable. This is not the fault of the presenter - it is the nature of the topic.
19	Very useful information.
20	Very helpful.
22	Very informative and enjoyable. Thomas Tobin was incredibly engaging as a speaker.
23	Excellent, clear presentation style. And oh-so-knowledgeable!! perhaps a little more in depth in a few areas; a bit more content on slides. rather basic

ResponseID Response

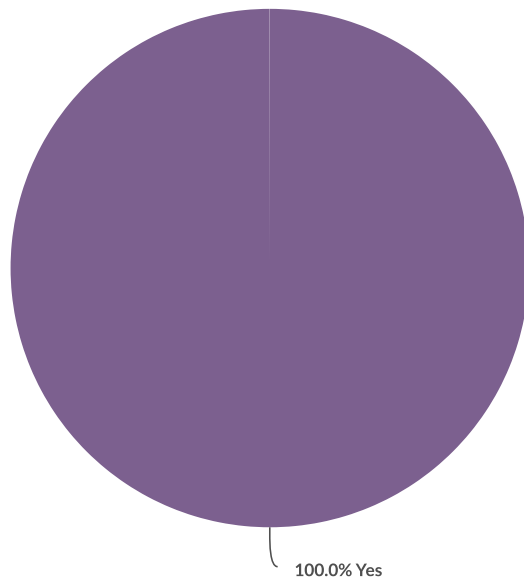

- 24 Tom knows his stuff and presents information in a way that others can understand quickly. No longer will I share the sentiment of Mark Twain, that "Only one thing is impossible for God: to find any sense in any copyright law on the planet." [Twain, M., & Paine, A. (1935). Mark Twain's Notebook]
- 25 The topic can be very dry and long or it can be complicated and have no answer, but the information was presented in precise surface-level answers.

3	none
4	n/a
6	No, great work.
8	The written activities where not well designed. It would have been better to provide examples along with the assignment.
10	Yes actually creating a copyright course for my faculty.
11	I really liked the interactive approach of this course. Well done.
12	not at this time
14	Ya'll doin a great jab!!!!
16	Not really, it was good. The only suggestion I can think of is just any FAQ details about what meets the criteria for the badge?
17	Maybe have the facilitator hold online office hours when there is work to be done between sessions, or questions come up. Maybe more activities, as they were engaging and very informative.
19	More specific information and examples of copyright infringements in the academic environments.

20	It was very helpful. I assumed the assignments were due at the next class meeting. Missed the first one and gave up on the badge. But the webinar was great.
