Dear Dr. Tobin,

Although your webinar "Three Ways to Support Students during COVID-19 Remote Instruction" was more than a month ago, I can't thank you enough for your expertise and the wealth of information you provided our community. As you can see from the evaluations completed, you were overwhelmingly a hit and we are looking forward to welcoming you back to our campus, virtually or in-person.

I also want to thank you for your outstanding professionalism and organization in getting us from our initial conversations to the post-webinar check-in. You were thoughtful and thorough in your approach and it was rather easy and straightforward to work with you on scheduling, logistics, and contracting.

We will be in touch for future opportunities for you to meet with our faculty and staff and are appreciative of the work you do.

Kind Regards,
