

Q29 Sneaky Inclusive Design, or, How to Be Inclusive When You Can't Say Inclusion

Thomas J. Tobin, Thomas J. Tobin Consulting, LLC

Answered: 8 Skipped: 117

	POOR	BELOW AVERAGE	AVERAGE	ABOVE AVERAGE	EXCELLENT	TOTAL	WEIGHTED AVERAGE
10:15-11:15 am	0.00% 0	12.50% 1	25.00% 2	0.00% 0	62.50% 5	8	4.13

#	COMMENTS FOR "10:15-11:15 AM"	DATE
1	Dr. Tobin was a really engaging speaker. I especially enjoyed seeing him model best practices in action (the describing the slides was one I had heard recommended but not seen in practice). He left me thinking about how I can also use these techniques to promote the liberal arts and humanities. My only minor note is that he only high-fived the men. My guess is that he didn't want to make femmes feel nervous with physical contact as that's a little more fraught than cis male physical contact. But maybe a hand shake or snaps or brief applause would be a better alternative? This is all thoughts. It really was a 10/10 presentation, and I hope to see Dr. Tobin in the future.	6/10/2026 8:28 AM
2	I was disappointed in this presentation. Given the title, I thought it would provide tips & tricks for inclusion in the classroom or online. Instead, it was about ways to justify DEI work. Good information and a friendly presenter, but the title & abstract didn't align with the content for me.	6/8/2026 2:29 PM
3	Such an important conversation !!	6/7/2026 3:49 PM